Log Data

When using our Service, in the event that an error occurs when using the Tenant App we collect data and information (through third-party products) on your phone called Log Data. This Log Data may include information such as your device Internet Protocol ("IP") address, device name, operating system version, the configuration of the app when utilizing our Service, the time and date of your use of the Service, other statistics, and data points necessary for troubleshooting and improvement of our service.

Cookies

Cookies are files with a small amount of data that are commonly used as anonymous unique identifiers. These are sent to your browser from the websites that you visit and are stored on your device's internal memory.

This Service does not use these "cookies" explicitly. However, the Tenant App may use third party code and libraries that use "cookies" to collect information and improve their services. You have the option to either accept or refuse these cookies, and receive notice when a cookie is being sent to your device. If you choose to refuse those cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of this Service.

Service Providers

We may employ third party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate our Service;
- To provide the Service on our behalf;
- To perform Service-related services; or
- To assist us in analyzing how our Service is used.

Users of the Tenant App are hereby informed that these third parties have access to your Personal Information. Such access is necessary to performance of the tasks assigned to them on our behalf. However, these third parties are obligated not to disclose or use your information for any other purpose.

Security

We value your trust in providing us with your Personal Information, thus we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.
